2. The resolution (affirmed by Business Meeting): The President and Executive Committee of the SouthEastern Conference on Linguistics, having convened at the 72nd SouthEastern Conference on Linguistics in Raleigh, NC on April 9, 2005, express their great satisfaction at the decision of the South Atlantic Association of the American Dialect Society to meet jointly with SECOL. We welcome this affiliation and look expectantly to a joint future of academic benefit and collegiality.

3. The resolution of appreciation was passed.

4. Nomination Procedures: Since SECOL is on longer meeting in the fall, new nomination procedures were decided on. Nominations will be solicited and posted on line. The slate shall stand on the website for three months prior to the meeting. Officers stand elected and take office at the spring meeting.

5. Budget: SECOL has $31,742.39 in its Charlotte as of February 28, 2005.
