

SECOL LXXII

Raleigh, NC * April 7 - 9,
2005

Location: Sheraton Capitol Center Hotel, Raleigh, NC

Hosted by NC State U, NC State Linguistics/ Language & Life Project

THURSDAY, APRIL 7

Session 1: SAADS Special Section at SECOL: Dialectology Chair: Ben Torbert, Mississippi State University	12:15-1:55
"From Memphis to Nevada: Folk Dialectologists are on the Job..." Valerie Fridland Kathy Bartlett University of Nevada, Reno	12:15
"Anatomy of a Merger." Terry Irons Morehead State University	12:40
"Hey, y'all! I'm goin' home!": A South Atlantic Speaker in Michigan." Lisa Cohen Minnick Western Michigan University	1:05
"Who are the real Southerners?" Benjamin Torbert Mississippi State University	12:40
SESSION 2: Syntax and Syntactic Variation Chair: Jeannine Carpenter, Duke University	2:00-3:40	SESSION 3: Linguistics and Pedagogy Chair: Jeff Reaser, Duke University
"Grammaticalization of Proximative Aspect in Korean." Seongha Rhee Hankuk University	2:00	"Pedagogy of and Pedagogy from the North Carolina Language and Life Project Videos." Thomas Nunnally Kathryn Nunnally Auburn University

"From Phrasal Auxiliary to Quasimodal: The Theory of Unidirectionality in the Case of 'fixin(g) to'." Mary Zeigler Georgia State University	2:25	"Learning Linguistics and Learning Tolerance." Ellen Johnson Berry College
"Grammaticalizing Double Modals: A Case of Unidirectional Change?" Stephen Nagle Coastal Carolina University	2:50	"What Do Linguists Do All Day?" Abigail Konopasky University of New Orleans
"Expletives and Nominative Case: The Case of Appalachian English 'they'." Christina Tortora CUNY-Staten Island	3:15
3:40-4:00 BREAK
SESSION 4: Spanish in the United States Chair: Phillip M. Carter, NC State University	4:00-5:40	SESSION 5: The Copula Chair: Tracey Weldon, University of South Carolina
"'Se Habla Español': Corporate America Adopts Spanish." Anita Pandey Morgan State University	4:00	"On the Origin of 'Phrasal BE' in Black English." Mark Elson University of Virginia
"Gender and Age Variations in Spanish and English Use in the Southeastern U.S." Daniel Smith, Clemson University Manuel Morales, Lander University	4:25	"Invariant 'be' and 'was/were' Variation in New England Folk Speech: Evidence from Colonial and Postcolonial Writings." Radoslaw Dylewski Adrian Pable Adam Mickiewicz University
"Service Learning: Spanish students using their language skills and cultural knowledge in service to the local community." Karen Burdette Tennessee Technological University	4:50	"Copula Variation in Southern Illinois White Vernacular English." Doug Bigham University of Texas at Austin
"Language Contact and Identity: Spanish in North Carolina." Liliana Paredes, Duke University Jim Fitzpatrick, NC State University	5:15

7:00-9:00

An Evening at the Movies

Muzel Bryant / Voices of North Carolina / Princeville Remembers the Flood

[back to top]

FRIDAY, APRIL 8

BREAKFAST PLENARY:

Dennis Preston

8:30-10:00

SESSION 6: SLA Chair: Dennis Preston, Michigan State University	10:10-11:50	SESSION 7: Language and Written Communication Chair: Robert Trammell, Florida Atlantic University
"Acquisition of English Consonant Clusters by Korean Speakers: Vowel Insertion and Consonant Deletion in IL Phonology." Bo-Young Kwon Michigan State University	10:10
"Language Ideology and Second-Language Learning." Theresa McGarry East Tennessee State University	10:35	"Linguistic Features of Opening Salutation in Academic Job Rejection Letters and Their Sociolinguistic Implications." Xiaozhao Huang University of North Dakota
"Learner's Identity and L2 Pragmatic Development: The Role of Grammatical Competence." Irina Konovalova University of Alabama	11:00	"Southern Dialect Influence and Business Student Writers." Charlotte Brammer Samford University
"What Constitutes Clear Idea Development? A Formal Analysis of L1 Professional and L2 Student Academic Writing." Catherine Smith Troy University	11:25	"Towards a Multidimensional Model of Variation in Spoken and Written Communication." David Marlow University of South Carolina
11:50-1:20 LUNCH BREAK
SESSION 8: The Speech Community Chair: Becky Childs, University of Georgia	1:20-3:00	SESSION 9: Language Before the 20th Century Chair: Ralf Thiede, UNC-Charlotte
"Imagined Dichotomies and Local Practice: The Speech of African	1:20	"Ibn Sina and the Anatomy of Speech."

American Community Leaders in the Rural South." Walt Wolfram, NC State University Tyler Kendall, Duke University		Solomon Sara Georgetown University
"Sociolinguistic History and Ethnolinguistic Configuration: The Case of Bertie County, North Carolina." Angus Bowers, Jr. NC State University	1:45	"Linguistic Testimonies of 19th-century Immigrant Jacques Martin." Michael Picone University of Alabama
"The Spread of New Orleans English in the Suburbs." Adam Pounders University of New Orleans	2:10
"Immigrants to Appalachia, their Languages, and Schools." Rosiland Gann East Tennessee State University	2:35
SESSION 10: Phonetics Chair: TBA
	3:00-4:40	SESSION 11: Discourse, Pragmatics, & Narratology Chair: Connie Eble, UNC-Chapel-Hill
"The Phonetic Manifestations of the Multiple Vibrant Liquid in Word-initial and Intervocalic Environments in Spanish." Robert Hammond Purdue University	3:00	"It's all my fault! The Pragmatics of Responsibility Statements." Janet Bing Charles Ruhl Old Dominion University
"Urbanization, Class, and the Spread of Linguistic Variation: (str) in Columbus, OH." David Durian Ohio State University	3:25	"After the Flood: Discourse and Narrative Strategies for Community Building in the Wake of Disaster." Jim Fitzpatrick NC State University
"Filling the Gap: English Tense Vowel Plus Final (sh)." Gregory Iverson Joseph Salmons University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee	3:50	"Pragmatics, Intonation, and WH-in-situ." Heather Taylor University of Maryland
"An Analysis of /ai/ Monophthongization in Four	4:15	"The Discourse Function of Grammaticalised 'liked to'."

Multiple Birth Siblings." Linda Holladay Anna Oggs Robin Sabino Auburn University		Laura Wright Cambridge University
4:40-5:00 BREAK
SESSION 12: Language and the South Chair: Bridget Anderson, University of Georgia	5:00-4:40	SESSION 13: Morphology and Syntax Chair: Sarah Hilliard, Duke University
"Language and Ethnic Identity: Variation among Jews in Memphis, Tennessee." Cynthia Golden Bernstein University of Memphis	5:00	"Lexical Categories as Primitives." Mark Honegger University of Louisiana-Lafayette
"Cherokee English in the Appalachian Context." Elizabeth Coggshall NC State University	5:25	"Three Grammars, Three Lexica." Ralf Thiede UNC-Charlotte
"Northwest and North Central: Louisiana's Distinctive Cultures and Dialects." Lisa Abney Northwestern State University of Louisiana	5:50	"Split-Ergativity in Hindi/Urdu, Pashto and Balochi within OT-LFG." Mahinnaz Mirdehghan Shahid Beheshti University Tehran
"'Backwards Talk' in Smith Island, MD: Linguistic Forms and Social Functions." Natalie Schilling-Estes Georgetown University	6:15	"At the Crossroad of Negative and Affirmative: Strategic Uses of Negation in Korean." Hyun Jung Koo Sang Myung University
6:45 RECEPTION

[back to top]

SATURDAY, APRIL 9
7:25-7:50	SECOL Executive Committee Meeting	Executive Meeting
7:55-8:20	SECOL Business Meeting	Board Meeting
8:30-10:10	SESSION 14: Syntax Chair: Jim Fitzpatrick, NC State University	SESSION 15: Quantitative/Computational Research Chair: Tyler Kendall, Duke University	Panel 1: American Language
8:30	"A window into Case	"Acculturation and 2nd-	Video and

	and Control: Japanese Adverbial Predicate PPs." Stanley Dubinsky, University of South Carolina Shoko Hamano, George Washington University	Language Achievement: An Old Topic in New Situation in 2nd-Language Acquisition Research." Guiyong Duan, Alyson Whyte, Sue Barry, & Alejandro Lazarte Auburn University	Curriculum Resources for English & Social Studies Walt Wolfram Jeffrey Reaser (NC State University) Carolyn Adger (Center for Applied Linguistics)
8:55	"The Nominative/Genitive Alternation in Multiple Nominative Constructions in Japanese: A Statistical Analysis." Hideki Maki Tamami Morishima University of Gifu	"An Interactive Web-based Application for Vowel Plotting." Scott Murphy Morehead State University
9:20	"On Negation in Multiple Modal Constructions." Simanique Moody New York University	"Who's Counting? Some Consequences of Different Coding Schema in Quantitative Sociolinguistics." Guy Bailey, Jan Tillery, & Claire Andres, University of Texas-San Antonio
9:45
10:10-10:30 BREAK
10:30-12:10	SESSION 16: AAE Chair: Christine Mallinson, NC State University	SESSION 17: Language and Identity Chair: Natalie Schilling-Estes, Georgetown University	PANEL 1: American Language Continued Video and Curriculum Resources for English & Social Studies
10:30	"A Quantitative Study of 17th-century English Plural Marking in West Africa." Robin Sabino Claudia Escobar Auburn University	"Markedness, Standard English, and Identity Construction." Allison Burkette University of Mississippi
10:55	"AAE in the Lower Susquehanna Valley:	"Leadership and Farmworker Identity in a Formal,

	A Study of Regional Variation among African Amer. Speakers in South Central PA." Jennifer Bloomquist Gettysburg College	Organizational Setting." Rebecca Burns-Hoffman Gloria Padilla-Martinez University of South Florida	Jeffrey Reaser (NC State University) Carolyn Adger (Center for Applied Linguistics)
11:20	"Attenuation of the Influence of African American English in the Language of Southern African American Students." Lennette Ivy Cynthia Bernstein University of Mississippi	"Tribal Identity and Indian Language Revival in the South." Blair Rudes UNC-Charlotte
11:45	"In Their Own Words: What Some African Americans Think about the Acquisition of Standard English." Robert Trammell Nannetta Durnell-Uwechue Florida Atlantic University	"From Patient to Person: Maintaining Identity in End-of-Life Care." Sara Sanders Coastal Carolina University
12:10-1:10 LUNCH BREAK
1:10-2:50	SESSION 18: Language, Gender, & Sexuality Chair: Ron Butters, Duke University	SESSION 19: Languages in Contact Chair: Agnes Bolonyai, NC State University	PANEL 2: The Roswell Project Chair: Bill Kretzschmar, UGA
1:10	"Situated Sexuality: Variation and the Sociolinguistic Perception of Identity." Erez Levon New York University	"Grammatical Steps in Language Shift in an In-migrant Population." Carol Myers-Scotton University of South Carolina	"The a / o Merger Moves to Roswell, Georgia" Bridget Anderson University of Georgia
1:35	"Queer Discourse on Television, as seen in 'Will and Grace' and	"Adolescents and the Transition from French to English in Antebellum	"Finding Roswell's Voice: Balancing

	'Queer as Folk'. Jefferson Barbour Old Dominion University	Louisiana." Connie Eble UNC-Chapel Hill	Methods, Community, and Research Goals" Becky Childs University of Georgia
2:00	"Any Given Sunday': An Opportunity to Evaluate Gender Roles and Morality in Language." Garrison Bickerstaff University of Georgia	"Berbice Dutch: Between Creole and Mixed Language." Steven Gross East Tennessee State University	"Roswell Voices: A Public Presentation of a Community Language Study" Bill Kretzschmar University of Georgia
2:25	"The Effects of 'Gay Age' on Gay Male Cooperative Discourse." Stephen Mann University of South Carolina	"Grammatical Constraints on Codeswitching: Evidence from Xhosa and German." Laurie Sanders University of South Carolina
2:50-3:10 BREAK
3:10- 4:50	SESSION 20: Issues in Spanish Chair: Liliana Paredes, Duke University	SESSION 21: Words and Dictionaries Chair: Michael Adams, NC State University	PANEL 3: What You Can Do With A Regional Corpus: Giving back to the community Chair: Boyd Davis, UNC- Charlotte
3:10	"El idioma maya Popti' y la Declaración Universal de los Derechos Lingüísticos." Rudy Camposeco Universidad Rafael Landívar, Guatemala	"Contemporary Campus Slang and its Treatment in a Modern Dictionary." Don McCreary University of Georgia	"Not Just for Language Learning: How Corpora Enhance Teacher Training and Healthcare Instruction" [panel]. Boyd Davis Lisa Russell- Pinson UNC-Charlotte

3:35	"Iterativity and Habituality in Spanish: An Illustration from the Past Dimension." Alicia Cipria University of Alabama	"The Linguist as Dictionary." Ron Butters Jackson Nichols Duke University	"Listen to Me: Ethnic and Gender Variations in a Corpus of Alzheimer's Talk" Charlene Pope Danielle Ripich Medical University of SC
4:00	"Perception and Production of Alveolar and Dental Stops [d] and [t] by Beginning Spanish Learners" Kristi Hislope Mariana Stone North Georgia College	"'Liberal' and 'Conservative' in the Twenty-First Century." Julia St. John UNC-Chapel Hill	"Stance, Gender, and Cross-Corpora Comparisons: DC (Depositions Corpus) and the Charlotte Narrative and Conversation Collection" Boyd Davis, UNC-Charlotte Peyton Mason & Stephen Westman, Linguistic Insights, Inc.
4:25			"Spanish Discourse Markers in Oral Narrative: An Analysis of Two Venezuelan Storytellers in the CNCC" Jonathan Smart UNC-Charlotte
4:50-6:05	SESSION 22: Sociophonetics Chair: Erik R. Thomas, NC State University	SESSION 23: Community Engagement Chair: Ryan Rowe, NC State University
4:50	"/ai/	"Wolfram's Principle of

	Monophthongization in South Texas: A Case-Study." Brooke Ehrhardt University of Georgia	Linguistic Gratuity and the Creation of a Website on 'Language in Alabama'." Catherine Evans Davies University of Alabama
5:15	"The Centralization of Low Back Vowels in a Small New Hampshire City." Patricia Irwin University of New Hampshire	"Insiders, Outsiders, and Locals: Audience Considerations in Linguistic Gratuity Projects." Christine Mallinson, NC State University Becky Childs, University of Georgia
5:40	"Ethnic Divergence in Front Vowel Height in Eastern North Carolina." Drew Grimes, NC State University Melissa Damann, UNC-Chapel Hill Libby Coggshall, NC State University	SPECIAL TALK: Walt Wolfram on Linguistic Gratuity Projects Walt Wolfram NC State University

[back to top]